

Marc-André Grou

AUDREN | ROLLAND

Marc-André is a commercial litigator. His practice has been focused on class actions and appellate law for the last fifteen years.

Marc-André is renowned for his in-depth knowledge of all aspects of class action law. Aside from consumer class actions, which are his particular area of expertise, Marc-André's experience includes telecommunications, product liability, banking, constitutional law, transport, directors' and officers' liability, health law, competition, copyright, and cases of sexual abuse.

Over the years, Marc-André has developed significant expertise in written advocacy. He has been involved in several high-profile cases before the Court of Appeal of Québec and the Supreme Court of Canada, both in class actions and in other complex matters. He was selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in Canada[®], Class Actions, in 2023.

REPRESENTATIVE MANDATES

- _ A tobacco company in two class actions concerning product liability
- _ A telecommunications company in a class action involving the throttling of Internet traffic
- _ A telecommunications company in two class actions involving early termination fees for Internet and telephone services
- _ A telecommunications company in a class action involving early termination fees for wireless services
- _ Two credit card issuers in a class action alleging violations to consumer protection legislation concerning the terms of payment
- _ Twelve hospitals in a class action involving delays in radiotherapy treatment for breast cancer patients
- _ A health agency in a class action concerning access to psychiatric services
- _ An engineering firm in a class action concerning damages alleged to have been caused by delays in repairing a deck bridge
- _ A public prosecutor in a class action alleging prosecutorial abuse
- _ A schoolboard in a class action alleging sexual misconduct by a schoolteacher
- _ A tobacco company in an action by the provincial government for the recovery of health care costs
- _ A victim of a wrongful conviction in a civil action against the Crown before the Supreme Court of Canada
- _ A television producer in a copyright action before the Supreme Court of Canada

393 St. Jacques Street
Suite 248
Montreal (Quebec) H2Y 1N9
514.349.4956
mgrou@audrenrolland.com

AUDREN | ROLLAND

EDUCATION

- _ Barreau du Québec, 2004
- _ B.C.L. / LL.B., Civil Law and Common Law (great distinction)
McGill University, 2002
- _ M.A., Anthropology, University of Toronto, 1999
- _ B.A. Honours, Anthropology and Liberal Arts (distinction),
Concordia University, 1998